DEDICATION

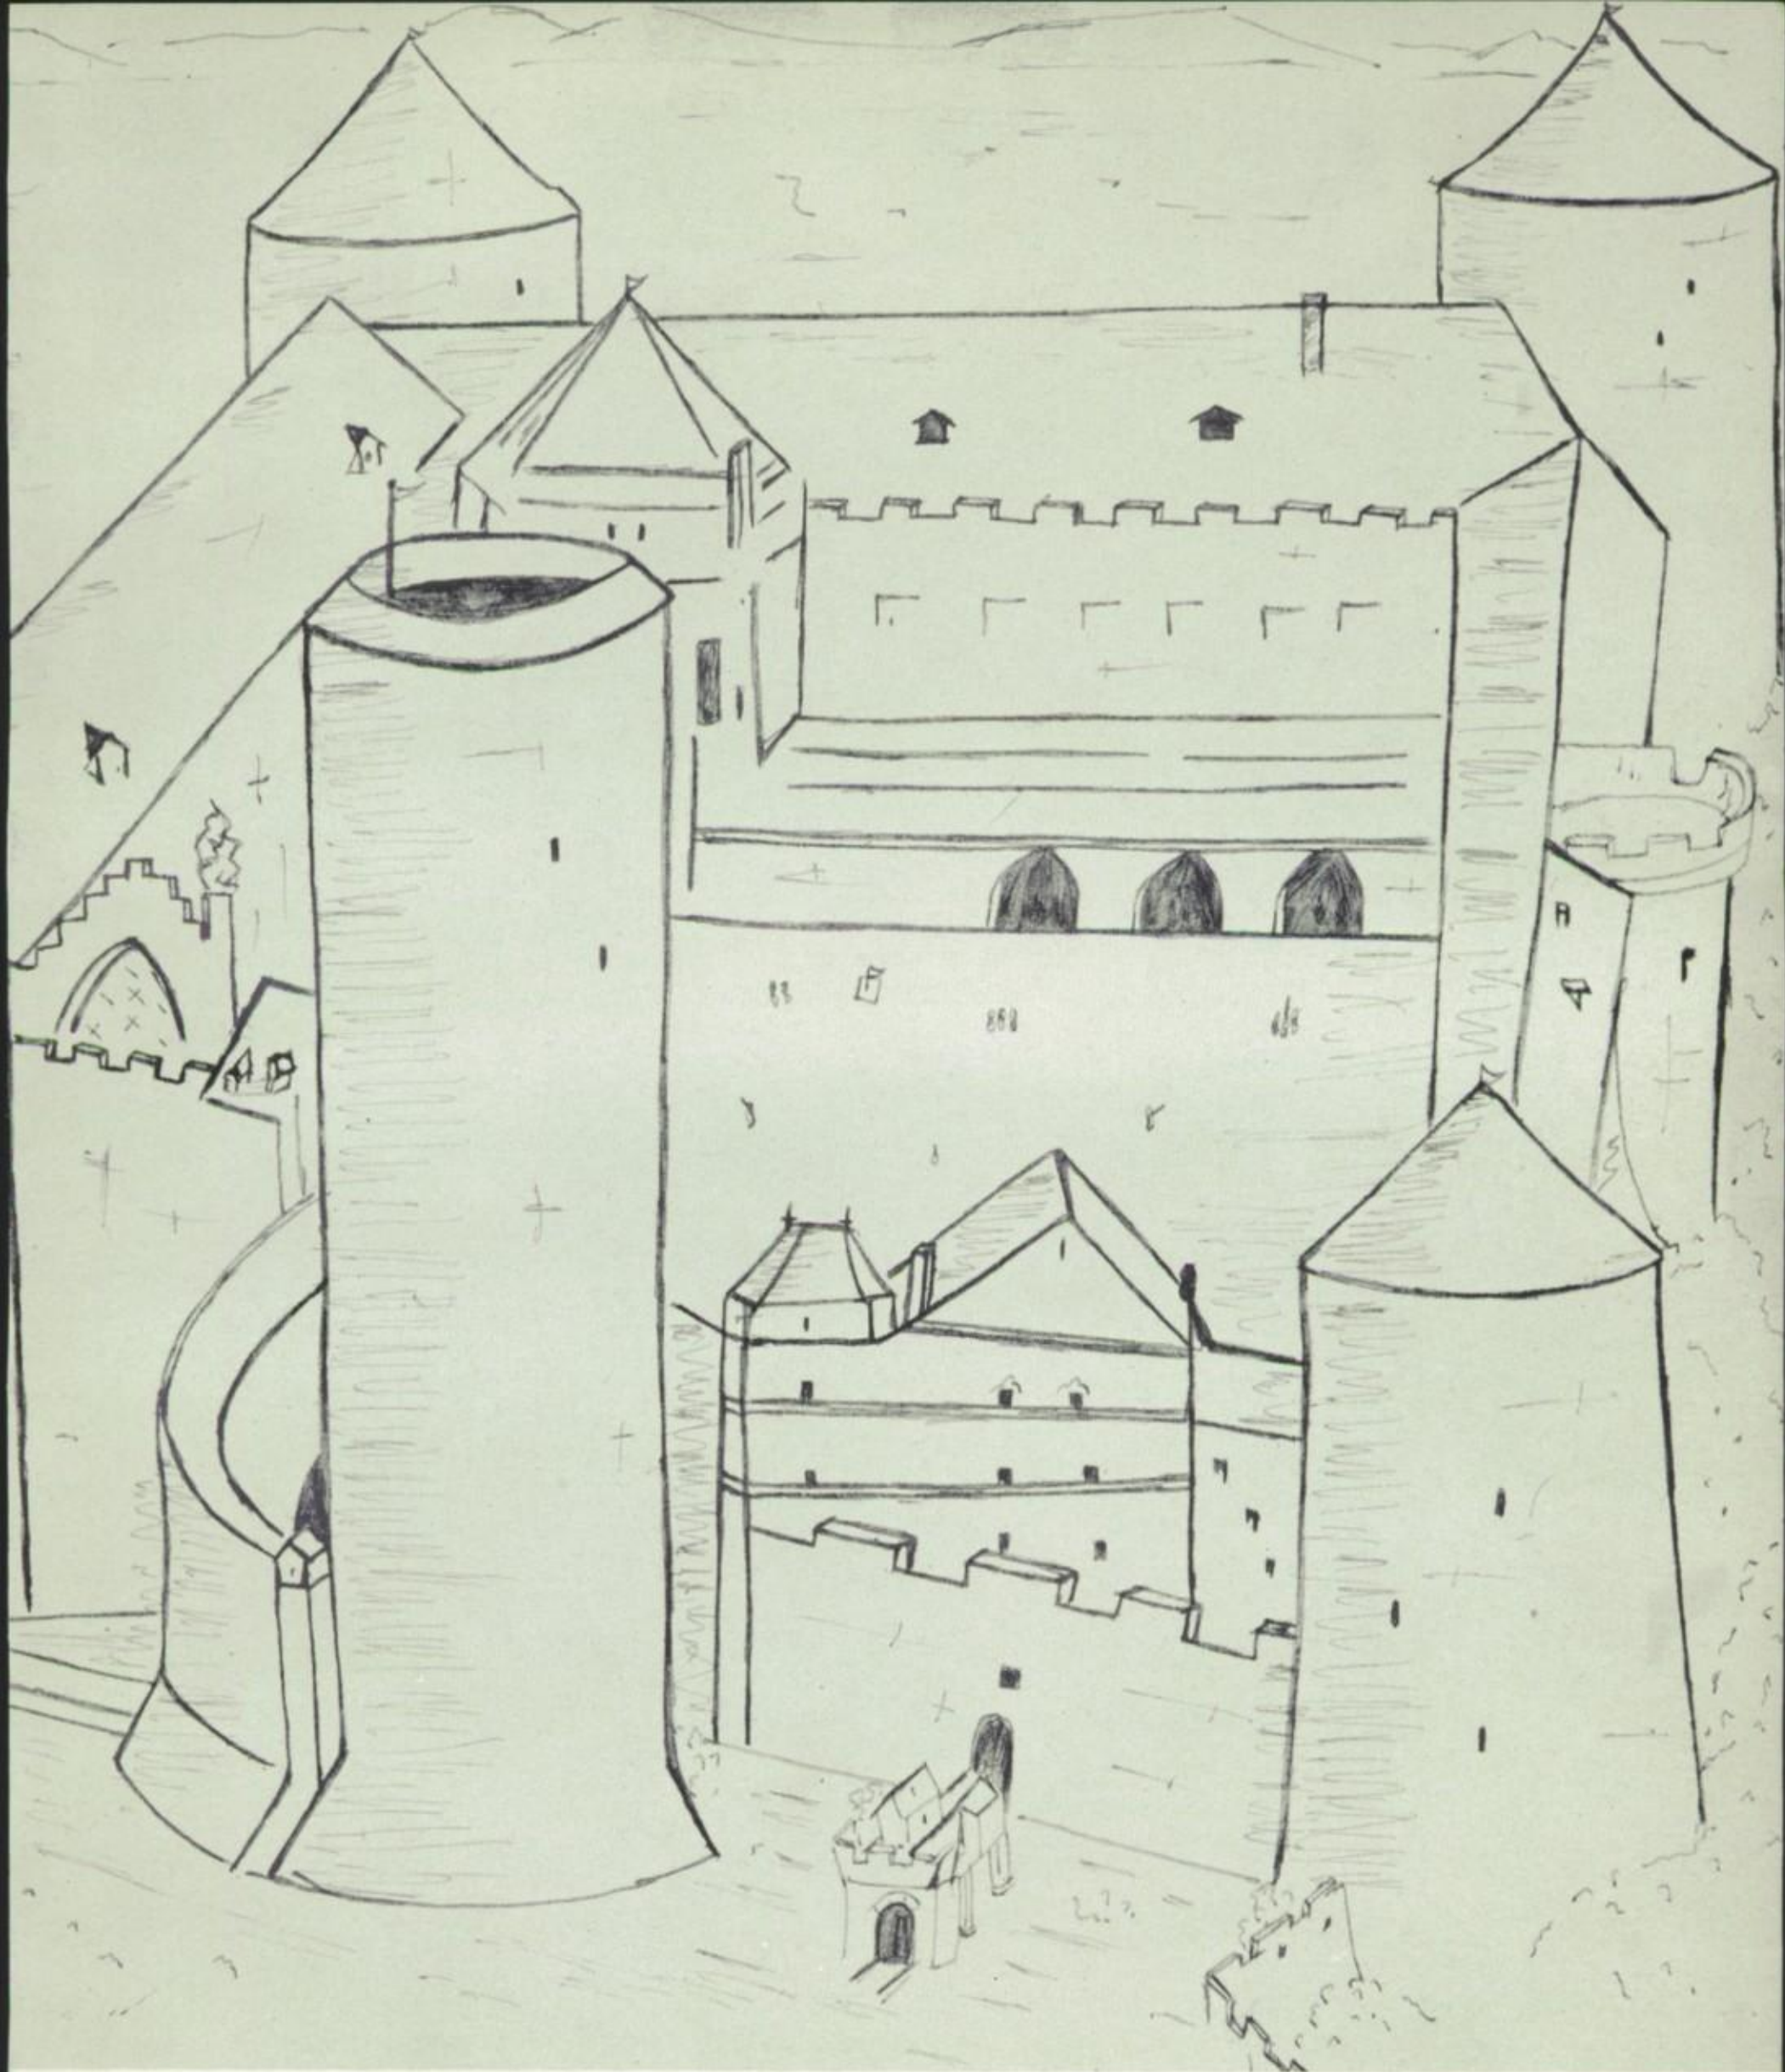

Mr. Warren Lynch counseling a senior.

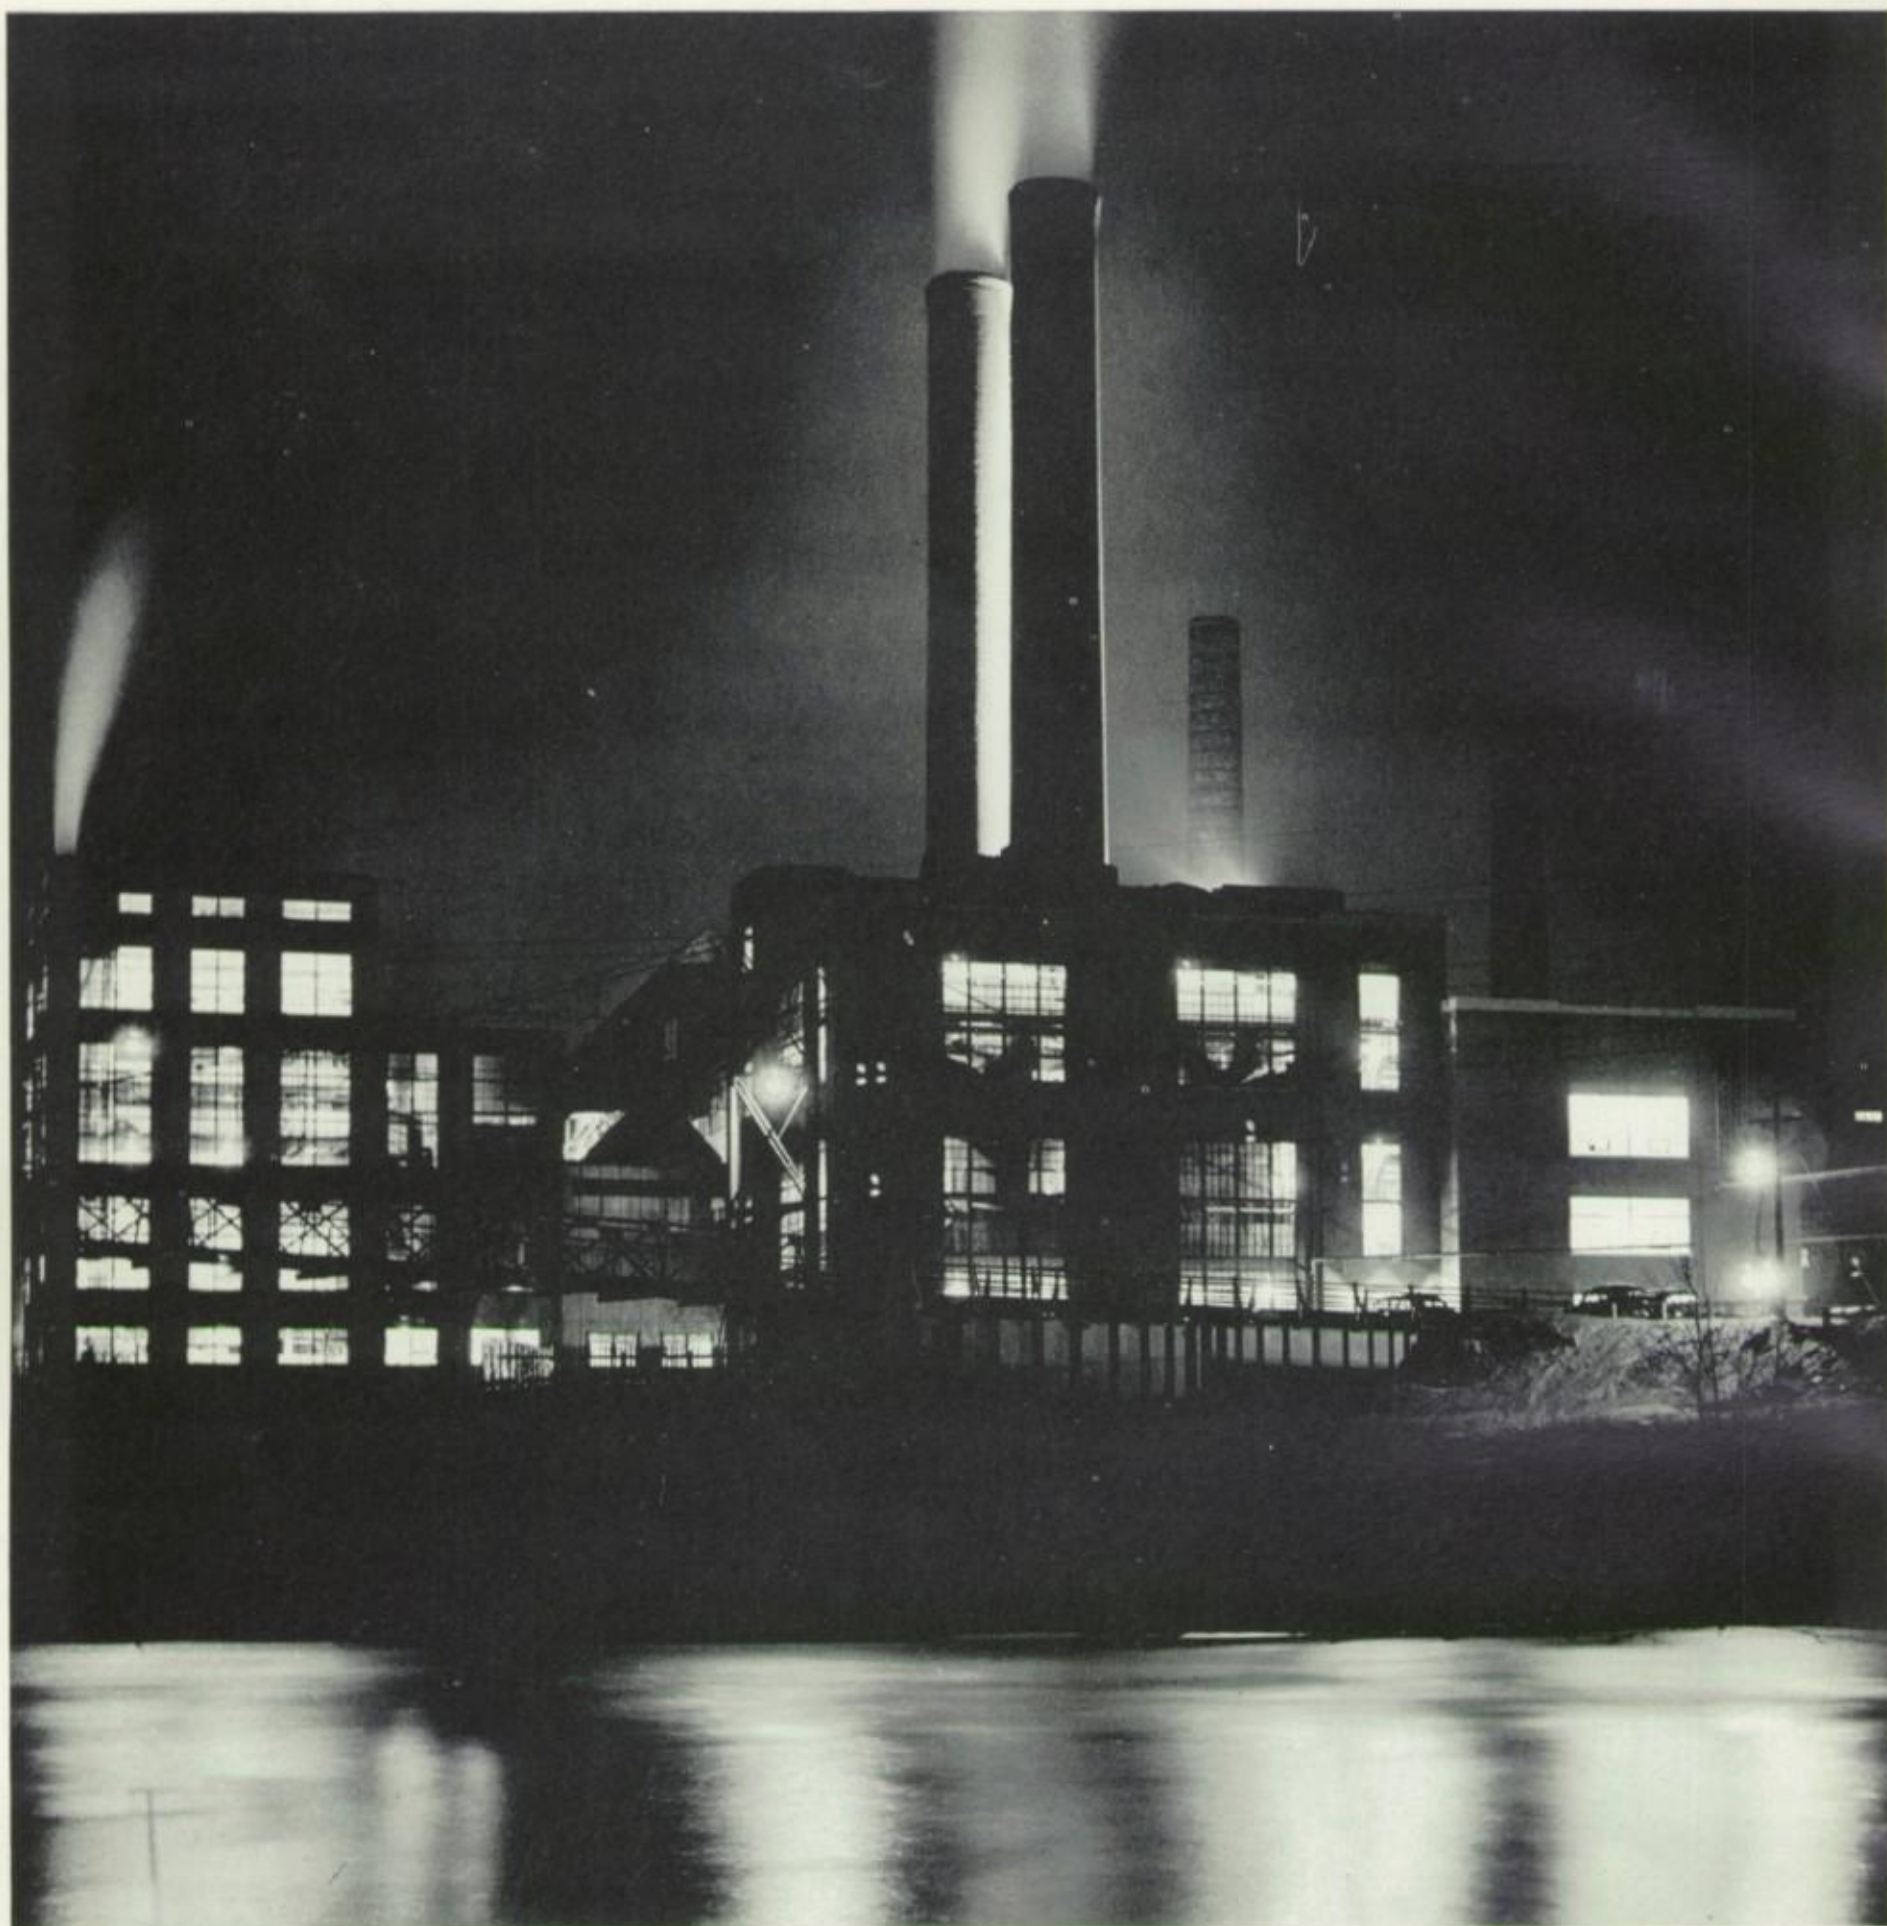

We, the class of 1960, dedicate this edition of the TRIBUTE to you, a friend and confidant. We value highly the unselfish devotion of your time and efforts to our guidance. With your cheerful smile and genuine friendship, you have assisted us to understand ourselves and to recognize our abilities. As our potential is utilized we will realize again the true merit of your counseling.

With deep appreciation the class of 1960 expresses a heartfelt thank you in a tribute to you, Warren F. Lynch.

Long long ago in the days of chivalry a great jousting tournament was about to be held at the Castle of Count Rumford in the Kingdom of Stephens. If we can imagine ourselves as spectators in one of the gaily decorated pavilions, we may see here a surprising reflection of our own school activities.

A View of the Oxford Paper Company, at night.

Nestled among the hills in the Northwestern section of the State of Maine is the thriving town of Rumford. The business district of this community is on an island surrounded by the waters of the Androscoggin River. This powerful Waterway is a great asset to papermaking, the principal industry in Rumford, and provides a picturesque sight of cascading waterfalls for the tourists and vacationers. Besides being an interesting spot for visitors, this community has several areas of recreation for its 2800 students. One of these facilities is the Institute, sponsored by the Oxford Paper Company, and another is the ski area, sponsored by the Chisholm Ski Club.

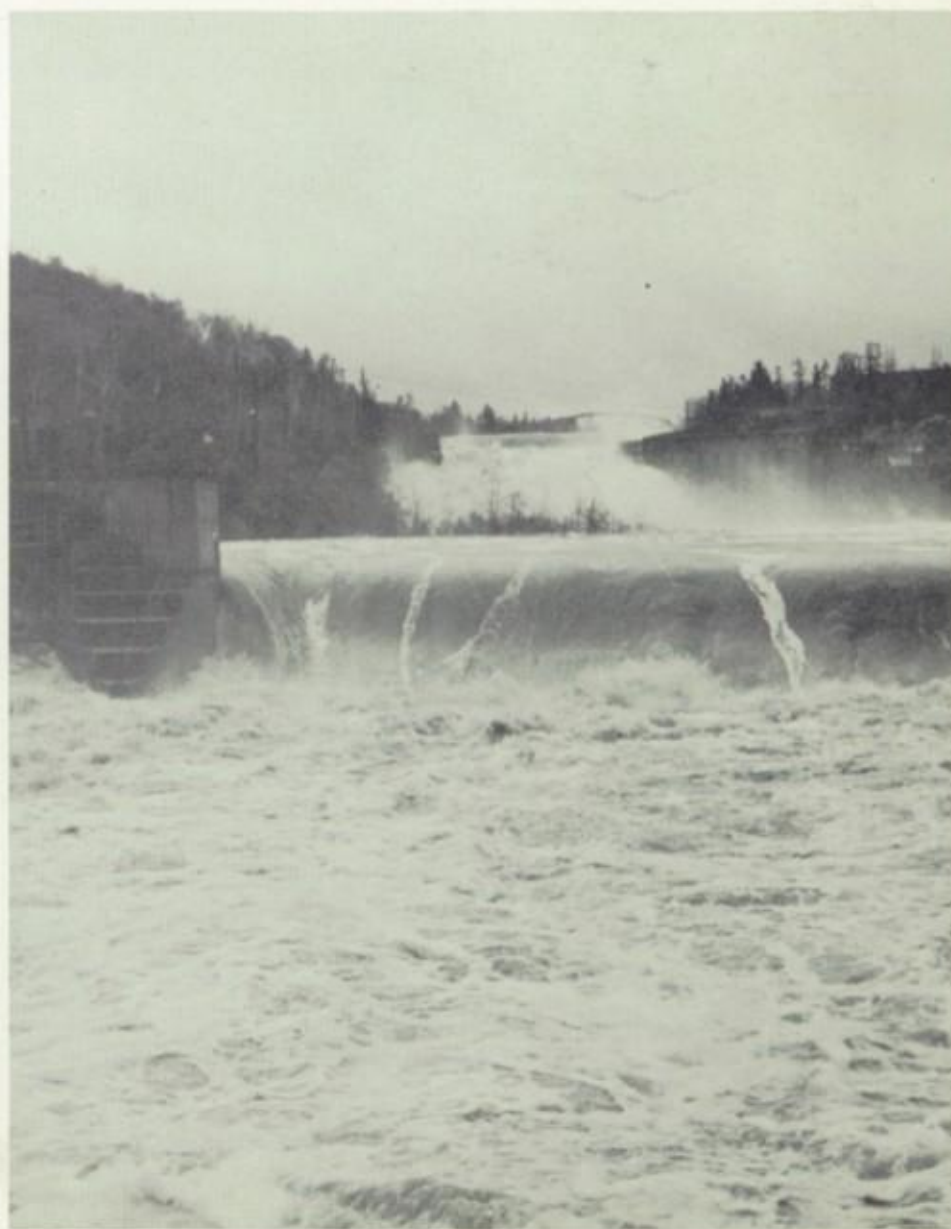

The bright lights on Congress Street.

OUR COMMUNITY

Ping-pong pros of the Institute.

The turbulent Rumford Falls.

Mr. Edward L. McMonagle, Superintendent of Schools.

RUMFORD SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Leonce Jobin, Mr. Ted Sirois, Mrs. Ted Sirois, Mrs. Leonce Jobin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Prentiss chaperone the Winter Carnival Dance.

PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS

According to Dr. James B. Conant, the American High School is unique in that it offers a wide variety of valuable and interesting experiences to the majority of the young adults of a given community. The youth of Rumford, therefore, would do well to consider the Stephens High School as a vast storehouse from which each may take what he will, the only limitations being those placed upon the individual by his own ability and effort.

In nineteen hundred twenty-three, Stephens High School was granted Chapter 183 of the National Honor Society. This high school society corresponds to the Phi Beta Kappa Society in college.

This year, the National Honor Society is made up of fourteen seniors, fourteen juniors, the principal, the guidance officer, and eight teachers representing the various departments of the school. Students who are outstanding in character, scholarship, leadership, and service are elected to the society by the faculty. To be elected to this society is the highest honor a high school student can receive.

LITERARY MAGAZINE

Mr. Burton deFrees, Adviser, Joanne Vatalaro, Co-editor, Mary Hoyt, a contributor, and Joseph Lessa, Co-editor examine a student's essay.

The Literary Magazine, sponsored by the English Department, is an experiment recently undertaken to encourage creative writing among students with literary ability. All submissions are considered by a committee, and those accepted appear in one of the bi-annual editions of the magazine.

ART CLUB

Joanne Vatalaro watches as Elizabeth sketches for John Wiken.

The Art Club has again become activated at Stephens. Meeting twice weekly after school, the students study the history of art, and the basic elements of design and drawing. They apply this knowledge in actual experience with painting in oils, water colors, and tempera.

Every year the Glee Club becomes more popular as an extracurricular activity; this year has been no exception. One could hear the harmonious blending of male and female voices during seventh period and after school. Sometimes, to the surprise of many, a group would still be humming after rehearsal.

At the traditional Christmas concert, the vocalists created a moving effect by performing from the balcony of the auditorium. Soon afterwards some of the members were accepted for the All-State Festival: Ann Arsenault, Dianne Boivin, Jeanette Boivin, Daniel Bryant, Jean Bulger, Lois Bulger, Richard Burns, Albert Dekin, John Elliott, Thomas Ferguson, Beverly Gallant, Elizabeth Geiger, Tania Gerrish, Andy Grannell, Mary Irish, Kenneth Kenney, Nancy Knight, Judy Larson, Karen Moore, Judy Orino, Gloria Patrick, Lee Perkins, Jean Perry, Fred Ripley, Renita Theriault, Gloria Thompson, and Iris Wing. This year the All-State was held in Houlton for four days in early April. Those who participated reported that it was a marvelous experience. Finally the Glee Club took part in the Annual Spring Music Festival.

Our Senior Play was presented to a large and enthusiastic audience on the night of November 19 (under the direction of Mrs. Effie Warner). A comedy in three acts, The Divine Flora, is a type of modern Cinderella story, complete with a singing idol. Two boys take on the task of converting a pitifully plain girl into a "hep chick." They succeed only after a series of hilarious and moving episodes.

It's Tex! It's Tex Aaaaaarlean!

9:30 The hopeful Seniors close their books.

11:00 Those tense moments of waiting.

(A.M.)

WINTER

11:30 Skiers schuss in slalom.

9:30 Princess Gayle walks sweetly down the aisle.

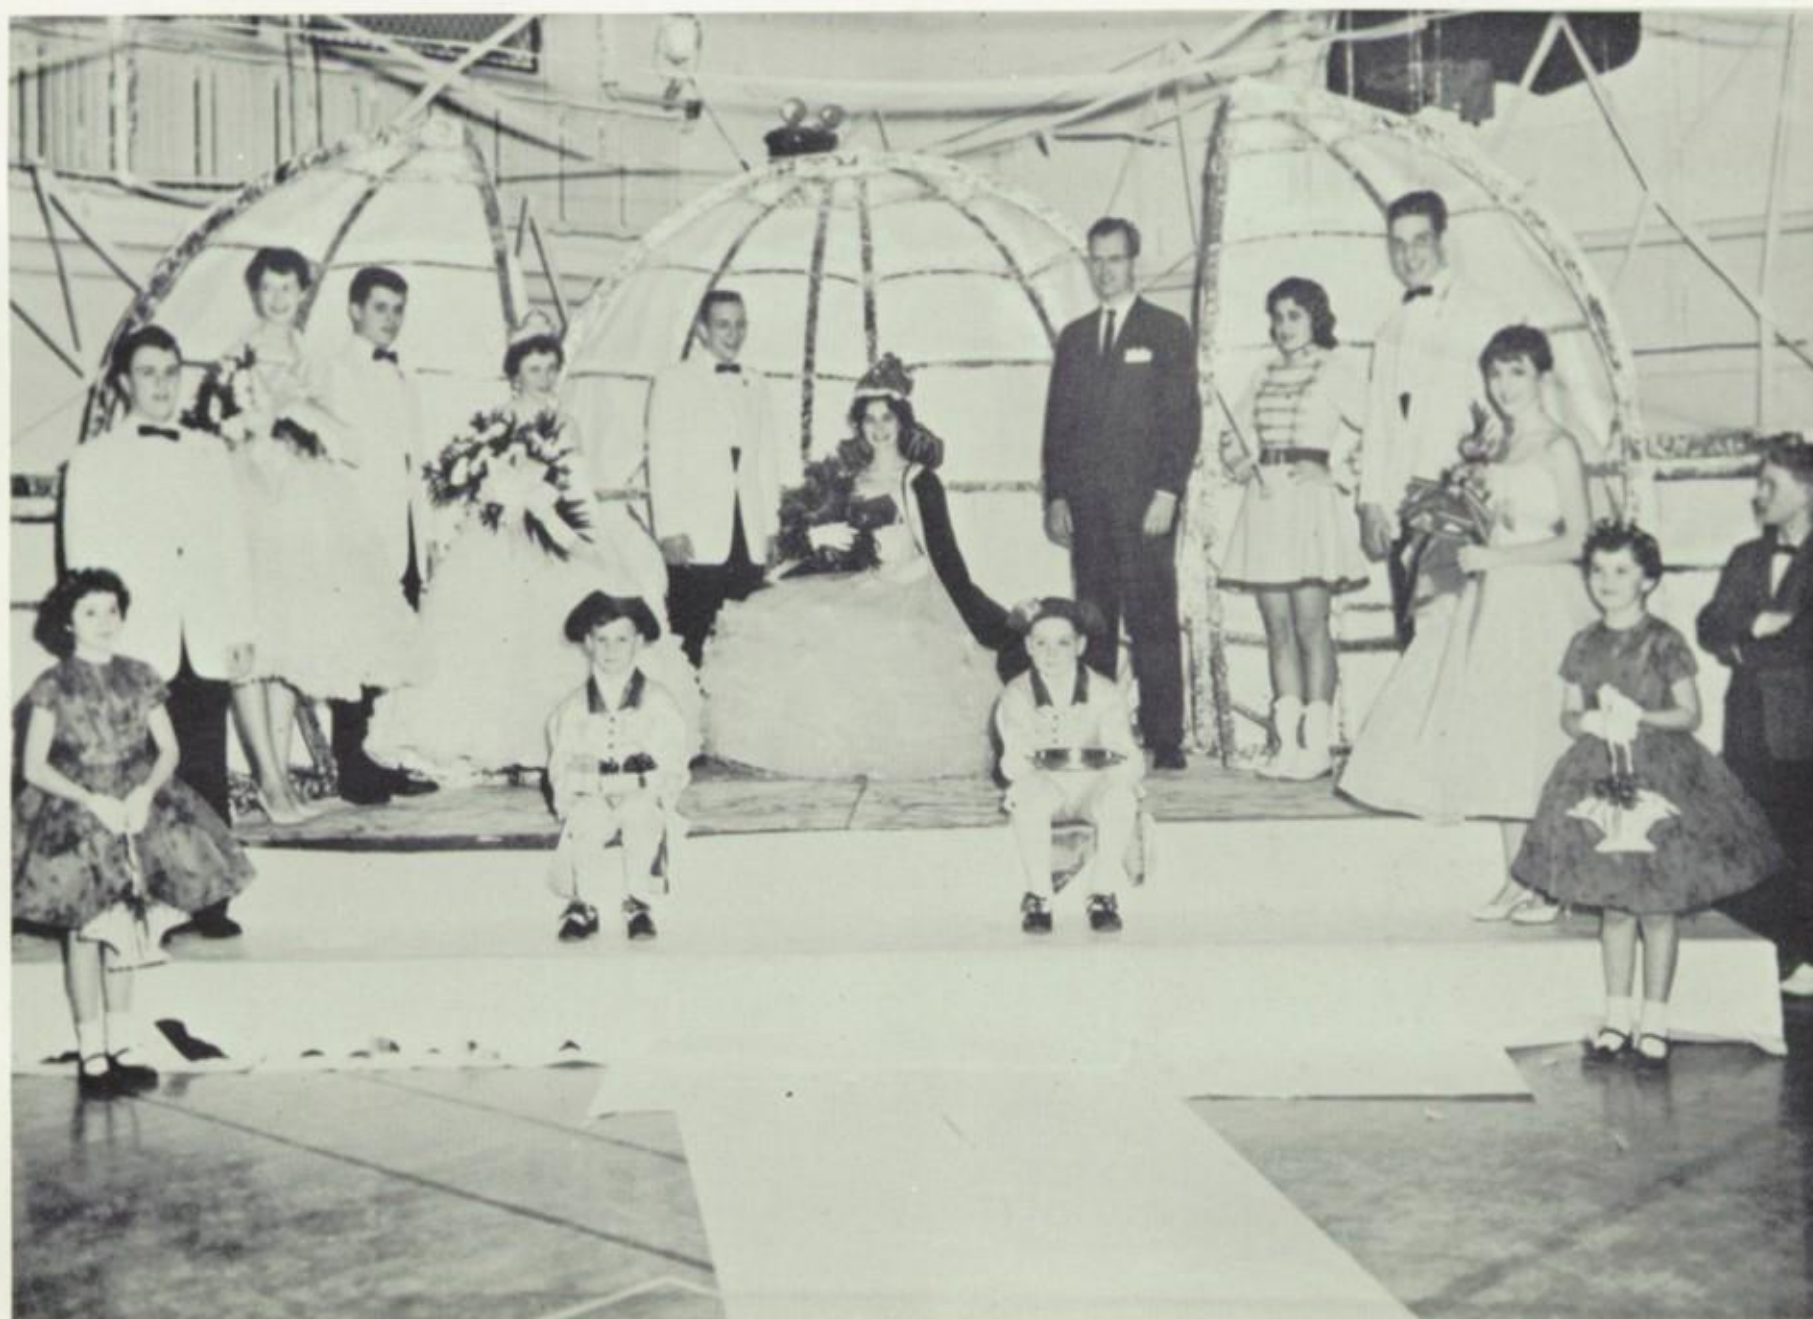

9:35 Pretty Princess Iris follows.

CARNIVAL

(P.M.)

9:40 Finally lovely Queen Corrine escorted by Maurice Roy ascends the throne.

10:00 Long live the Queen and her royal court!

CONCERT IN THE PARK

Steve and Anne meet at the concert.

CAST

Steve John Elliott
Anne Elizabeth Geiger
Allen Doug McLeod
Policeman Bob Blackmore

First place was awarded to the Stephens High School play in the District One-Act Play Contest held in March. Other high schools participating were Rangeley, Dixfield, Mexico, and Paris.

Concert in the Park, directed by Mrs. Effie Warner, is a drama of crime and love. Steve and Anne meet nightly at the concert in the park. Allen, Anne's brother, reveals Steve's criminal past in the presence of the policeman. After exchanging promises of a future meeting, Steve tries to escape unsuccessfully.

As Anne cries, Allen watches Steve being captured.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

HIGHWAY SAFETY CONFERENCE

Three delegates, Linda Dolloff, Bernice Stanzilis, and Robert Blackmore, with Mr. Leonard, attended the Governor's Youth Highway Safety Conference in Augusta where they learned how to organize a Safety Council at Stephens.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATES

For one week each June, Dirigo Boys' State is held at the University of Maine and Dirigo Girls' State is held at Colby College. These two similar programs enable the delegates to participate in the self-government typical of a state. The fun and work-filled week demonstrates the need for our youth to develop into strong and able Americans. Our delegates to the 1959 Dirigo Girls' and Boys' States were Corrine Arsenault, David Dori-on, Walter Buotte, William Melanson, Robert Blackmore, Joseph Lessa, David Kimball, Lawrence Farrell, Kimball Martin, and Mark Ayer.

Highway Safety Conference: Bernice Stanzilis, Linda Dolloff and Robert Blackmore.

Girls' and Boys' States: Corrine Arsenault, Walter Buotte, William Melanson, Robert Blackmore, Joseph Lessa, David Kimball, Lawrence Farrell, Kimball Martin and Mark Ayer.

CHEERLEADERS

Our peppy cheerleaders form a V for the many victories they have so enthusiastically encouraged. Janet Kersey, Head Cheerleader, holds the Panther megaphone. Rising from her right shoulder are Janice Auby, Annette Roy, and Jackie Bernard; and from her left Mel Goodwin, Janet Baker, and Nancy Knight.

The athletes, the coaches, and the students give a hearty vote of thanks to the greatest of Rah-rah groups!

We're from Rumford and couldn't be prouder;
If you can't hear us, we'll yell a little louder.

VARSIITY

Coach Dominic Puia and Manager Robert Marcoux

The Stephens High School football team had an outstanding season in 1959 and finished in third place in the Class A competition. The honorary co-captains, chosen by the lettermen, were Francis "Bo" Bedard, and Robert "Bubie" Arsenault. For winning seven out of the nine games played, the twenty-five lettermen received red letters instead of the customary white letters.

Coach Miko Puia did an excellent job of training and coaching the boys in this, his first year at Stephens. He was ably assisted by Coaches Thomas Farrell and Edgar Turmelle.

Sorry,
 Never forget the good times we had over to "Joan's".
 We used to sit around all the time. When he'd leave we'd make ourselves something to eat. You had the easiest and the hardest job. I had the easiest & the hardest job. I'll always remember the big lecture you gave Jimmy and I. I think it was a little bit, don't you?

Next year at the time you'll be a senior, and then out of school. Lucky!
 Now take well I hope you'll be a doctor. Don't forget to come with on the a bunch in everything you may a friend always
